

The parlor features copper, gold, and bronze contrasted with light teal in the tapestry pillows and the deep blue found in another handsome rug from Cyrus. Also found here is the first sofa that Sarah and Gilbert bought together, which she's had reupholstered along with an animal print ottoman. A couple of Sarah's paintings as well as works by Rhea and Zachary artist Cheryl Hoyt hang on the parlor walls.

A small but impressive and colorful room is the butler's pantry between the dining room and kitchen. The deep red

